Wilson to Host Roundtable between Local Small Businesses and Banks

WASHINGTON, D.C. - Congressman Charlie Wilson (OH-6) will host an open-format discussion between local small business owners and banks.

This roundtable will allow the Congressman to hear firsthand reports of the obstacles that both small businesses and banks are having during this tough economic climate.

"An event like this is just what we need to open the lines of communication between small businesses and banks," Wilson said. "Better communication and better relationships between these two groups will help revive our local economy."
